

Each weld is unique, the length and size of the welds are not critical.
The pictures below are real world examples of GOOD welds to help you determine if a seat base passes inspection.

